“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moths and vermin destroy, and where thieves break in and steal.”

— Matthew 6:19 (NIV)

HOOK

Start the conversation by saying...

When someone's house is on fire, the first thing they grab reveals what they truly value.

ENGAGE

Go deeper with this...

Where would you keep your most valued or important possessions?

LINK

Connect to God's truth by sharing...

- It's essential to discover what values should take first place in our list, because what we value will drive how we live.
- We all want to protect what's most valuable to us.
- But no matter how hard we try to keep things safe on earth, they can still get lost, stolen, or worse.
- Things we store up in heaven will never deteriorate.
- And the only things of value we can store in heaven are relationships—with God and people.

PAUSE

Pick a question and pray together...

Discuss Together (pick one)

- What are the five things you value most?
- What are your values that can be stored on earth? What are your values that can be stored in heaven?
- Are there values that you feel should be occupying a higher place in the list?

Pray Together (pick one)

- Pray to develop your relationships, the only value that can be stored in heaven.
- Pray for God's grace to realign your values so that they will be values that can be stored in heaven.
